Good health and good character are fundamental to being a midwife, and consequently all midwifery students must have a Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) Check. Professional courses are exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, and all previous convictions, cautions etc. must be declared. You will also require satisfactory health clearance. As students will undertake exposure-prone procedures as part of their training they will be required to have additional screening for HIV, Hepatitis B and Hepatitis C.

During the Midwifery course you will be required to attend placements. When you are asked for your choice of placement area we will endeavour to meet your request however we must emphasise that this cannot be guaranteed and therefore you must ensure you are able to travel to the final placement area you are allocated.

This course is not available at present to international applicants.

Distinctive Features of the Course:

This course leads to an academic award and a qualification as a registered midwife. The BSc Hons in Midwifery is one of the few courses in the United Kingdom that is accredited with the UNICEF Baby Friendly Initiative (BFI) and the course also includes Neonatal Life Support training that is accredited by the Resuscitation Council. This will enhance your employability locally, nationally and internationally.

Students choose to study midwifery at the University of Wolverhampton because they have a choice in selecting their home Trust which means their clinical placement is near to their home. They find the clinical and teaching staff friendly and approachable and the learning facilities excellent.

Clinicians always comment on the standard of students exiting the programme as being exceptional which is demonstrated at interview.

Educational Aims of the Course:

The pre-registration midwifery course will enable you to develop the knowledge and skills to provide safe and effective midwifery care in local, national and international healthcare settings. You will have the opportunity to study with other health and social care professionals. On successful completion of your studies you will be eligible to apply for registration as a midwife with the Nursing and Midwifery Council. The BSc Hons in Midwifery is one of the few courses in the United Kingdom that is accredited with the UNICEF Baby Friendly Initiative (BFI) and the course also includes Newborn Life Support training that is accredited by the Resuscitation Council and training in the Newborn and Infant Physical Examination (NIPE).

Employment

Midwives graduating from The University of Wolverhampton have consistently achieved employment in local and national health care settings. Employment opportunities are also available in the European Community where the qualification is widely accepted.

Midwives make a unique contribution to the health and well being of mothers during one of life's most important events. They work in a variety of settings including women's homes, birth centres, clinics and hospitals and provide the women with majority of their care throughout pregnancy, labour and the postnatal period.

Many midwives go on to develop their careers in practice, management, education or research.

Further training and education opportunities

In addition to a wide range of exciting jobs and careers, you will also be required to undertake continuing professional development in order to maintain your midwifery registration.

http://www.opsi.gov.uk/si/si2002/uksi\_20020253\_en.pdf

This life-long learning approach is critical to the maintenance of safe and effective care for women and their families.

More information is available from Revalidation: How to revalidate with the NMC (NMC 2017). which includes details of the NMC requirements for nurses and midwives to demonstrate how each nurse or midwife has kept his or her knowledge and skills up to date.

You can continue with further study and research in the Faculty of Education, Health and Wellbeing where we currently offer a wide range of post graduate courses in health and wellbeing. These include post-graduate certificates, post-graduate diplomas, masters and doctoral degrees. The post-graduate courses are highly flexible, work-based and have been designed with health and social care employers to ensure that your studies will be related to the key current and future issues for health and social care provision. Courses can be studied full or part-time and you may be eligible for some support from your employer to undertake certain courses related to your job.

We also have some short courses available either to meet a specific requirement our health and social care partner employers have or to provide you with a 'taster' of the longer courses. Details are available from the website dedicated to Continuing Education.

Ordinary Course Learning Outcome 2 (ORDCLO2)

Demonstrate an ability to deploy accurately established techniques of analysis and enquiry within a discipline and apply the methods and techniques that they have learned to review, consolidate, extend and apply your knowledge and understanding, and to initiate and carry out projects.

Ordinary Course Learning Outcome 3 (ORDCLO3)

Demonstrate conceptual understanding that enables the student: A. to devise and sustain arguments, and/or to solve problems, using ideas and techniques, some of which are at the forefront of a discipline. B. to describe and comment upon particular aspects of current research, or equivalent advanced scholarship, in the discipline.

Ordinary Course Learning Outcome 4 (ORDCLO4)

Demonstrate the ability to manage your own learning, and to make use of scholarly reviews and primary sources (for example, refereed research articles and/or original materials appropriate to the discipline) and communicate information, ideas, problems and solutions to both specialist and non-specialist audiences.

Ordinary Course Learning Outcome 5 (ORDCLO5)

Critically evaluate arguments, assumptions, abstract concepts and data (that may be incomplete), to make judgements, and to frame appropriate questions to achieve a solution - or identify a range of solutions - to a problem

Ordinary Course Learning Outcome 6 (ORDCLO6)

Demonstrate the qualities and transferable skills necessary for employment requiring: A. the exercise of initiative and personal responsibility. B. decision-making in complex and unpredictable contexts. C. the learning ability needed to undertake appropriate further training of a professional or equivalent nature.

Honours Course Learning Outcome 1 (DEGCLO1)

Meet the NMC Standards of proficiency for pre-registration Midwifery education.

Honours Course Learning Outcome 2 (DEGCLO2)

Provide midwifery care that is safe, effective and ethical and assume full responsibility and accountability for your own practice as a Midwife registered on the midwifery part of the NMC register within the legal framework of the country in which you are employed.

Honours Course Learning Outcome 3 (DEGCLO3)

Reflect upon and critically evaluate evidence to reach sound midwifery judgements and exercise effective decision making in complex situations within the midwifery sphere of practice.

Honours Course Learning Outcome 4 (DEGCLO4)

Critically examine the impact of political, professional and social contexts on your provision of person centred midwifery care within the context of a multidisciplinary team.

Honours Course Learning Outcome 5 (DEGCLO5)

Effectively apply your learning to identify, manage and lead enterprising innovations and service improvements in midwifery practice.

Honours Course Learning Outcome 6 (DEGCLO6)

Demonstrate competence in the use of advanced technologies to quality assure and enhance your midwifery practice and maintain your life-long learning.

Teaching, Learning and Assessment:

Your learning will include the study of six modules per year, there are no optional modules as you will need to study the prescribed modules in order to fulfil professional requirements. The learning activities which support you in achievement of the learning outcomes are wide and varied. Further to this, they should enable you to achieve our graduate attributes of digital literacy, global citizenship and be knowledgeable and enterprising. The types of learning which will help achieve the above include:

Formal learning - we promote a blended approach to learning; some core content will be delivered in the 'face to face' traditional teaching style but will include interactive activities to challenge your knowledge and practice.

Applying theory to practice – we use a variety of approaches to enhance your ability to evaluate, articulate and apply evidence to shape your professional practice eg critiquing of journal articles, informal presentations and case studies, and skills in summarising of key research in order to develop and disseminate findings to the healthcare team. You will make use of a range of electronic resources to investigate the influence and impact of global healthcare communities on national and local policy.

Problem solving and decision making – Problem based learning is an engaging and dynamic tool that can be an effective way to enhance your understanding of real practice problems. It provides an opportunity to develop your skills in clinical decision making within a safe environment, and to apply knowledge to deliver and lead quality initiatives to improve the experience of the patient (and family) in the multicultural care setting.

Research skills – you will be supported in the preparation of a detailed evidence based intervention and an independent study which will develop and expand your theoretical and practical knowledge of the research process.

Computer based learning - the integration of computer based technology, directed studies and traditional teaching will enhance the quality and efficiency of your learning experience. You will be encouraged to access electronic learning resources within both University and the healthcare environment, including the use of e-mail and discussion forums to communicate with fellow professionals in the learning community and develop your personal and professional values.

The ability to use digital resources and equipment is a key attribute of a graduate nurse and reflects the need for the healthcare worker to use advanced technologies in areas such as record keeping, delivery and management of care.

We will guide and support your learning using a mixed approach including:

- Lectures – we will use a variety of interactive learning methods that are supported by digital technology to enhance your learning.
- Workshops – interactive workshops will allow you to develop your therapeutic skills by having time to practice, such as the essential clinical skills and clinical practice modules.
- Simulated practical sessions – you will have the opportunity to engage in supervised practice to become knowledgeable and skilled in midwifery, which will enhance your employability prospects. You will have the opportunity to learn in our well-equipped skills laboratories which include practice areas that are hospital and home focussed. Some assessments will also take place in the skills laboratories to enable you to develop your skills in a safe environment.
- Debate and dialogue - the University's virtual learning environment, Wolverhampton on-line Learning Forum (CANVAS) will provide a forum for you to engage in dialogue with other students in your group as well as the lecturer.

Also:

- Seminars – where students take the lead in discussing relevant articles, debating and examining the evidence base that underpins midwifery.
- Formative on-line assessments – where we provide you with the chance to 'have a go' at some of the summative assessment tasks before the actual assessment is submitted as a way of developing your academic and practical skills with our tutorial guidance and feedback.
- Work placements – minimum of 50% of your course will be undertaken in practice placements where you will have the opportunity to practice your skills in the work environment with supervision and support. We hope that as you develop graduate midwifery skills during your course, you will be able to apply your learning to develop your midwifery proficiencies in the practice setting. You will be able to reflect on personal and professional learning, the development of knowledge and skills and identify strategies to develop midwifery care in the future.
- Peer presentations – you will study some aspects of specific modules and feed these back to the wider group so that you develop your ability to search, retrieve and use information to develop your knowledge of midwifery.
- Independent and self-directed learning – this is an important part of degree level study and through the course you will be encouraged to become an independent learner, able to decide what to learn and how best to achieve this. Independent learning will be required of you as a qualified midwife as part of the Prep requirement (NMC 2008) to ensure continuing professional development as part of the requirement for midwifery registration.
- Tutorials – face to face meetings with the module team and your personal tutor.

As part of your studies you will come into contact with a range of activities designed to promote and enhance your learning experience. Our use of blended learning activities encourages you to identify and address particular learning needs related to your practice.

Assessment Methods:

At the University of Wolverhampton, a variety of modes of assessment will be used to support and test your learning and progress and to help you develop capabilities that are valued beyond your University studies and into your working life. Your course may include a variety of assessment activities:

Written examinations (including online examinations, open and closed book examinations and quizzes)
Coursework (for example, essays, reports, portfolios, project proposals and briefs, CVs, poster presentation)
Practical (for example, oral and video presentations, laboratory work, performances, practical skills assessment)

In the final year of your undergraduate degree, and at the end of your postgraduate degree, you are likely to be expected to write an extended piece of work or research, such as a dissertation or a practice-based piece of research.

Student Support:

The University provides a range of resources to support you directly with your learning as well as other areas of your life. These resources are all signposted through the University web pages and include:

Study Support

We offer a variety of learning resources to help you progress. Academic skills support is available to all students throughout all levels of study, via the school and learning centres. Academic skills sessions are introduced within the induction programme, different modules and through a blended learning approach with access to material in CANVAS. This is to help you with using the learning resources effectively and also to help you when it comes to the assessments. Academic skill development is further embedded within the curriculum at different levels, through the ways in which lecturers present information and guide you to use it. Further support for learning is offered via personal tutors, tutorials with lecturers and feedback provided by lecturers for individual modules.

- Some useful resources are signposted through the Sharpen up your Skills web pages: <http://asp.wlv.ac.uk/Level2.asp?UserType=11&Section=8&Subsection=547> This is a great resource for you to enhance your academic skills, it offers a range of advice from basic IT skills, to essay writing and preparing for examinations, to personal development planning.
- Learning Information Services advisors who offer individual support across our four campus learning centres.
- ASSIST – which provides real-time online librarian support

Personal support

- Student Advisors

The Faculty of Education, Health and Wellbeing has two student advisors to offer help and advice on a range of issues that may be affecting your studies. Accessible by telephone and e-mail or website <http://www.wlv.ac.uk/default.aspx?page=9182>

- Personal Tutors

You will be allocated a personal tutor at the start of your course with whom you will build and develop a relationship. Your personal tutor will maintain communication with you (and you with them) as you progress through to completion of your course.

- Counselling offers a confidential space in which you can talk to a counsellor about your concerns.

Personal appointments are available on all campuses; there is a drop-in service every weekday at City Campus and on online counselling is available via CANVAS.

- The student financial support unit can help students with advice on funds available to students.
- The student enabling service centre provides a comprehensive range of support for D/deaf, Dyslexic and Disabled students including; screenings and assessments, guidance on gaining financial support, various support services and enabling technologies.

Practice support

In addition to the support available to you from the University, you will be supported in practice by your Practice Supervisors and a named Practice Assessor. Professional Midwifery Advocacy support is also available within Trusts. Further information about support in placement is provided in your Placement Handbook. You will have supernumerary status whilst in the practice setting.
