240-280 UCAS points with a minimum of 180 points from at least 2 A levels.

BTEC QCF Extended Diploma grade MMM; BTEC QCF Diploma grade DD.

Access to HE Diploma.

Distinctive Features of the Course:

The combination of sociology and social policy provides students with essential theoretical and methodological tools required to describe and analyse aspects of social life, and to comprehend the nature, importance and impact of social policy on our quality of life.

This course encourages community-based learning through placements in not-for-profit agencies and organisations. These modules are embedded in the course and are an accredited part of the student learning experience. The Sociology Department at Wolverhampton are pioneers of accredited volunteering in the UK. Students benefit from staff expertise in this area and the provision. Community placements deepen your appreciation of these two disciplines and enhance your employment opportunities.

You will be taught by skilled staff who are committed to high quality teaching and who are research-active. We bring to the class room a wide range of experience in the fields of sociological research and social policy provision.

Educational Aims of the Course:

The course gives students the opportunity to analyse and understand the complexities of the world we live in. Students can then apply their sociological knowledge in the study and critical analysis of key social issues in contemporary society, the impact these social issues have on people's lives and the social policy responses to deal with these issues. The course equips students with knowledge and skills appropriate for a range of graduate roles in the statutory, voluntary and commercial sector.

Student Support:

Where appropriate, online activities will support learning

Support for the development of academic skills is embedded in Level 4 Core modules. In addition, there is specialist academic practice modules at Level 4 and LIS support for academic skills development.

Students will receive feedback informally throughout the modules and formally through written feedback for their formative and summative assignments. This feedback will be constructive and indicate to students how to progress in their learning.

Students will be supported through their Project or Community Link or Placement modules by an allocated academic supervisor.

All students will have a personal tutor to support their progress throughout their course. Tutors are regularly available to meet with students to discuss any issues they wish to raise and to map their progress.

The Academic Support Tutors within SSHIPs provided additional specialised learning support for students on an individual basis.

Employability in the Curriculum:

Sociology and Social Policy graduates are employed in a wide range of careers, mostly in the public and not-for-profit sector. Careers in social research, policy writing and community work are all accessible for graduates. Post-graduate courses in Sociology, Social Policy, Social Work or a wide variety of related areas are also available to Sociology and Social Policy graduates.
